PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

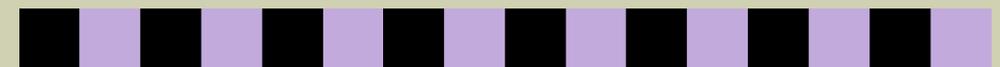

Welcome back all you artists and art pals to the Seattle CoArts 2025-26 session!

I am pleased to be introducing our new Vice President, Barb Tourtillotte.

We have exciting in-person and zoom events scheduled for the year, and I am looking forward to playing and making art with you all!

Conversations with your painting

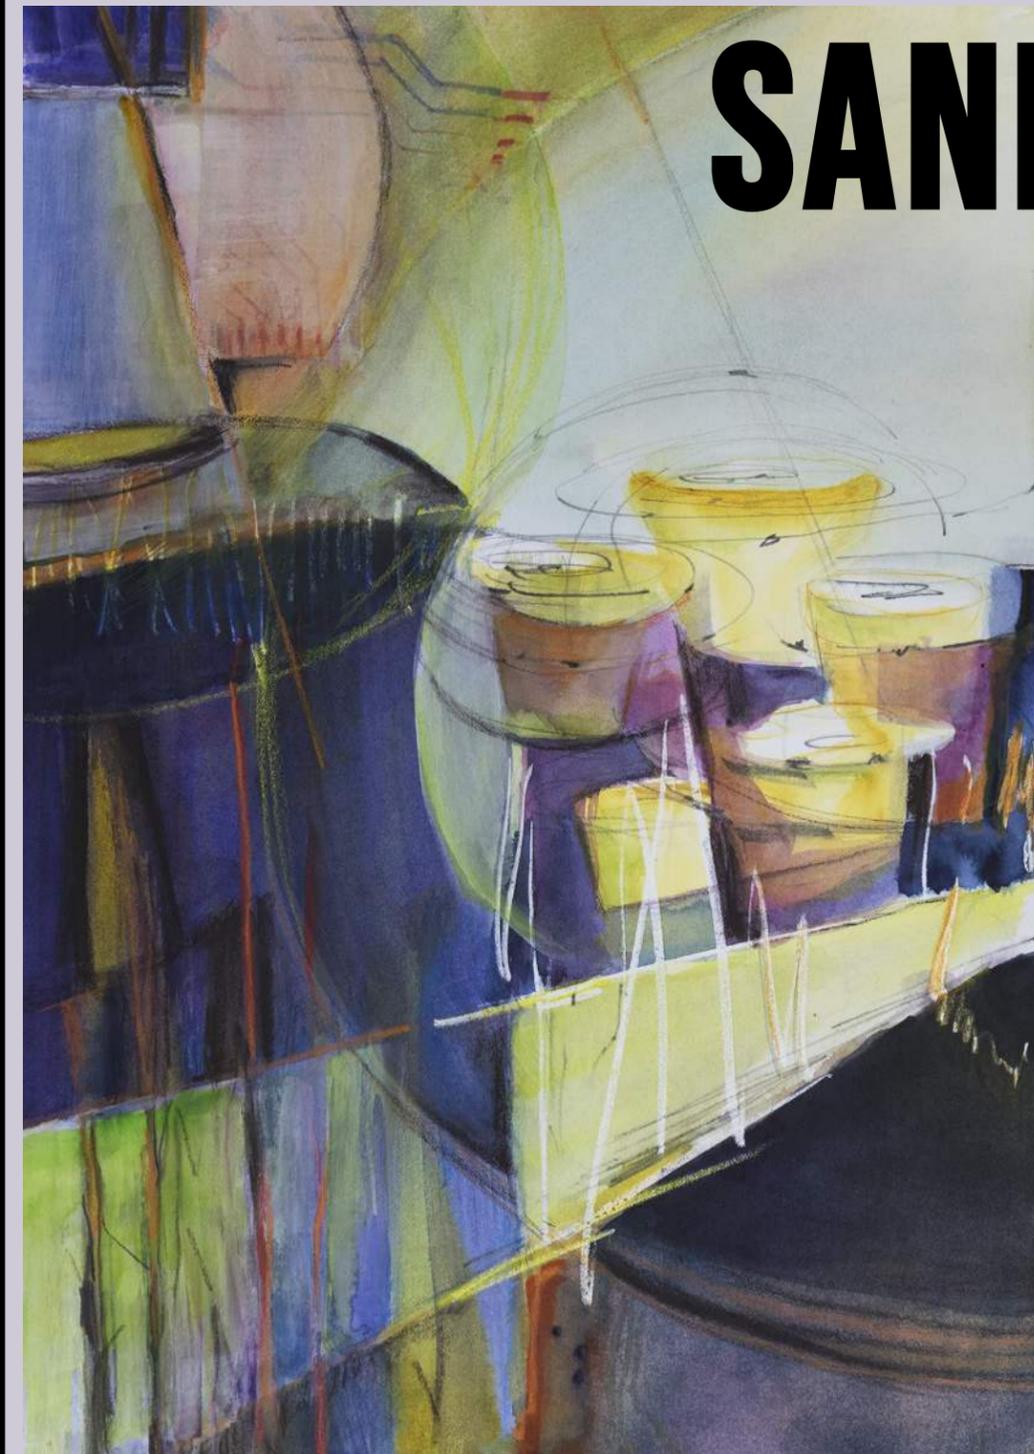

Beginning a painting: The challenges, choices, colors and composition.

Midway through a painting: Using a system to discover what is great, what is working okay, and identifying the problem areas.

Close to the end: How to listen to your inner critique (not critic)

A finished painting: Sharing, recording, and showing.

I will demonstrate my conversations on my painting from start to finish using watercolor and mark-making media.

Sandra Kahler, a popular watercolor instructor with the Seattle Parks Department since 1998 and continues to share her talents by teaching in the community.

Her education includes a B.F.A. in Drawing & Painting from the University of Washington.

You may view samples of Sandra's work on her website at www.sandrakahler.com
